8 Attorney for Defendant

9 MONTANA FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT LEWIS AND CLARK COUNTY

10 * * * * *

11 STATE OF MONTANA,

12 Plaintiff,

13 vs.

14 ARNOLD CELLO CARAY

15 Defendant.

16 Cause No. BDC-2009-211²⁰⁰

17 MOTION TO DISMISS

18 MOTION FOR DISCOVERY

19 * * * * *

20 Defendant respectfully submits these two motions, one a motion to dismiss and 21 second a motion for discovery if the motion to dismiss is denied.

22 MOTION TO DISMISS

23 This case arises as a result of allegations by a young lady named Rachel Morris,
24 who was 19 years of age at the time of the alleged act. She alleged that on May 20, 2009, 25 Defendant threatened to rape her. From the beginning Rachel Morris's claim was handled by Detective Mark Ekola of the Helena Police Department. There were no other witnesses to the events which allegedly took place between Defendant and Rachel Morris

1 on Thursday, May 20, 2009. These two people, that is, Morris and Ekola, are the key,
2 pivotal and really only witnesses in this case for the State.

3 It has come to light recently that there is an obviously improper and illicit
4 relationship between the State's chief witness and the State's chief investigator. Given
5 this illicit and improper relationship, it is clear that the case against Defendant cannot 6 proceed and needs to be dismissed.

7 Defendant has obtained information proving the improper and illicit relationship
8 between the said investigator and the key witness. These are confirmed in some of the e-9 mails going from Detective Ekola to Ms. Morris. These e-mails are appended hereto and 10 by this reference incorporated herein as Exhibit A.

11 Without going through each and every of the e-mails, the improper and illicit 12 relationship is clear and furthermore there is even a reference that Officer Ekola would 13 like to see Morris in an intoxicated state. Reference is made to the e-mail dated 14 November 30, 2009 at 9:53:16 p.m. which reads in part, "I would like to see you drinking
15 see how you behave." Ms. Morris is not of legal age to drink. The bottom line is simply 16 that the deck is stacked against Defendant because the only two State witnesses are now
17 more acquainted with each other than they should be and any testimony either of them
18 give at trial is tainted by the fact of their improper and illicit relationship.

19 Witness tampering has been described to include any efforts by a person designed 20 to influence the testimony of someone in an official proceeding. Here we have an official 21 proceeding and it is clear that the wrongful relationship will indeed affect the resulting 22 testimony. That creates an unconstitutional dilemma for Defendant and denies him due 23 testimony.

1 and proper process of law. See for example, Unites States vs. Fatemeh Khatami, USCA
2 9th Cir., 280 F3d 907 (2002).

4 MOTION FOR DISCOVERY

5 Defendant respectfully moves the Court to permit the following discovery, if and 6 only if, the Motion to Dismiss is denied. The undersigned has consulted with computer
7 experts in the matter. The items of discovery include the following:

- 8 1. Redeposition of Rachel Morris;
9 2. Deposition of Mark Ekola;
10 3. All e-mails and other internet entries between Rachel Morris and Mark
11 Ekola;
12 4. All Facebook entries by Rachel Morris from and after May 20, 2009;
13 5. All Facebook entries by Mark Ekola from and after May 20, 2009;
14 6. All entries and activity on Rachel Morris's exotic web site (eroticy.com)
15 from and after May 20, 2009.

17 Defendant is not interested in any matters which are private other than 18 communications and contact between Rachel Morris and Mark Ekola. Based upon 19 contact with computer experts, the undersigned avers that the written discovery (which 20 will include subpoenas and perhaps search warrants for the computers/hard drives) can be 21 limited in the scope as set forth herein.
